

(a)

Meme text: THROUGHOUT MY LIFE, MY TWO GREATEST ASSETS HAVE BEEN MENTAL STABILITY AND BEING, LIKE, REALLY SMART

Label: Harmless

ExplainHM: Harmful

CausalHM: Harmless

The meme is classified as 'harmless' based on the following reasons:

1. The meme does not rely on sensitive historical or political events, and it does not generate strong emotional responses. Instead, it seems to be a playful and satirical take on the idea of intelligence and mental stability.

2. The meme features a man wearing a suit and tie, standing on a balcony with two other people, all wearing sunglasses. The man in the suit and tie might be a reference to a well-known figure, such as Donald Trump, who is known for his controversial statements and actions. The inclusion of the two other people wearing sunglasses adds a touch of whimsy to the scene, making the meme appear humorous.....

(b)

Meme text: mountain mama (upockye O & Lucateero & qanon trying to figure out if COVID is still a hoax now that trump got it & 140 AM Det 2, 2020- Twitter tar Andioid

Label: Harmful

ExplainHM: Harmless

CausalHM: Harmful

The reasons that support the classification of this meme as 'harmful' are:

1. The meme promotes a conspiracy theory: The text "qanon trying to figure out if COVID is still a hoax now that trump got it" suggests that the meme is promoting the conspiracy theory that COVID-19 is a hoax.
2. The meme might cause confusion and distrust in public health measures: By spreading misinformation and conspiracy theories, the meme could lead to confusion and distrust in public health measures, which are crucial for controlling the pandemic and protecting the population.
3. The visual elements within the meme might evoke a sense of authority or expertise: The man wearing a tie and standing in front of the large clock might be intended to evoke a sense of authority or expertise, which could be used to reinforce the conspiracy theory.....